CONNECTING FIRMS WITH CANDIDATES DIRECTLY...

NO AGENCIES IN BETWEEN

A JOB BOARD DEDICATED TO THE RECRUITMENT NEEDS OF LAW AND ACCOUNTING FIRMS.

- A new way to recruit

A job board unlike any other – only promoting vacancies published by firms, for firms – not littered with blind or general advertisements published by recruitment agencies. We're also listing ALL potential vacancies for the firm, not just the Lawyers and Accountants – anyone looking to work in a Law or Accounting Firm.

- A new model for advertising

You don't pay for Advertisements you may not need or use, that may expire before you need them. Instead you pay for access and can publish as many vacancies as you like during that time.

- They're waiting for your opportunities

Lawyers and Accountants are busy – they don't want to be constantly checking for vacancies. With FirmCareers, they can register and specify their ideal job. When you publish it, they get an alert to come back and apply.

- Brand your firm

All advertisements will include template content including a short blurb about your firm, your firms logo and a link back to your corporate website, enabling you to put your 'best foot forward' when targeting candidates.

- You're the experts – lead by example

Our Career resources section will include tips and advice for candidates supplied by leading firms from around the world around how best to represent themselves, prepare their resume and perform at interview.

- Targeted candidate attraction

Only FirmCareers can leverage well established marketing channels direct to Professionals through the massive network of online and print information services delivered to professionals around the globe, every day, by Thomson Reuters.
